How to Reach the Conference Venue

To reach the conference venue, follow these steps:

- From Fiumicino Airport

Take the Leonardo Express operated by Trenitalia from Fiumicino Airport to Roma Termini. The journey takes approximately 30 minutes. From Roma Termini, there are numerous trains available to Napoli Centrale. High-speed trains can reach Napoli Centrale in about one hour. For schedules and tickets, visit Trenitalia or Italo. Once you arrive at Napoli Centrale (Piazza Garibaldi), proceed to step 3 below.

- From Napoli International Airport (Capodichino)

You can reach Napoli Centrale (Piazza Garibaldi) from Capodichino by either taxi or bus. The ALIBUS service connects Capodichino to the main train station at Piazza Garibaldi. For the bus schedule, visit ANM (<https://www.anm.it/>). After reaching Piazza Garibaldi, follow the instructions in step 3.

- Step 3 - From the Main Train Station (Piazza Garibaldi)

To reach the Conference Venue from Piazza Garibaldi, you have several options:

- On foot. It takes about forty minutes.
- By taxi. Taxis are available directly outside the station.
- By metro (line A of the metro from Piazza Garibaldi to the Piazza Municipio stop). From Piazza Municipio, either catch a bus to Via Partenope or walk for about 15 minutes, which is recommended.

These directions should assist you in navigating your way to the conference venue smoothly.
